Extended Abstract: Guidelines for Authors

We invite original research articles and concept papers which are not published or presented anywhere as extended abstracts. An extended abstract is a mini version of a full scientific document. Thus, the extended abstract must include all relevant aspects and information expected in a regular research paper without being too detailed with abstract and keywords, introduction, methodology, result, discussion, conclusion, and references.

Your extended abstract should have the following patterns to be selected.

- The whole document should be in Times New Roman font
- Title
    - All capital
    - 14 pt
    - Bold
    - Centered
    - Concise and not more than two lines
- Immediately beneath the title, list of authors' name followed with initials in 10 pt with superscript numerical numbers for affiliation at the end of each author's name. Authors' names should be centered and if more than one author, the names should be separated by commas.
- All sub-headings such as Abstract, Introduction, Methodology, Results and Discussion, and Conclusion must be in 12 pt and bold in sentence case.
- A line space should be included between paragraphs.
- Abstract must be in one paragraph with methodology, results and conclusion in 100 to 150 words. Must contain Key Words between 3 to 5.
- Extended abstracts should be at least three pages, but not more than five pages in length including the references. Word limit 1500 - 2000 words (excluding References).
- Margins should be aligned 1-inch for top, bottom, left and right. Text should be justified.
- All pages should include page number on the bottom right corner of the page.
- The page number should be in "Normal" font style (12-pt Times New Roman).
- Tables
    - Text within the table shall be 10 pt.
    - Table margins should not exceed the text margin.
    - Table number and the description must appear on top of the table in10 pt font.
    - Notations such as superscript letters and number notations, are acceptable within the table and a legend describing notations should follow directly beneath the table.
- Figures
    - should include charts, graphs, and drawings.
    - Figure number and the caption must appear immediately after the figure with 10 pt font.
- References/Bibliography Format
Follow the APA, 7th Edition.
